

The Strathmere Improvement Association,
The Strathmere Fishing and Environmental Club and the Schiavo Library present:

Your 2009 Memorial Day Weekend

Strat'mere

Star Party

Sunday, May 24, 8:45 pm

> On the evening of the New Moon <

Where: The beach at Randolph Avenue

(Where there is no street light to obstruct your view.)

Your star tour guide:

Derrick Pitts

Chief Astronomer, The Franklin Institute

Bring a blanket, beach chair, binoculars, maybe a telescope and the kids! And please encourage your neighbors to turn their outdoor lights down and away from the skies.

And keep repeating: "No clouds please, no clouds please ..."

Official astronomer lodging provided at the historic Strat'mere Motel, courtesy of the good folks at the Schiavo Library.
